

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

VOL. XXX.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1908.

No. 23.

BIG FLEET OFF CALLAO.

Admiral Evans Too Ill to Attend Social Functions.

PRESIDENT PARDO, OF PERU.

Will Assist In the Celebration of Washington's Birthday.

Callao, Feb. 21.—The American battleships under Rear Admiral Evans, looking clean and trim and

REAR ADMIRAL BOB EVANS.

Efficient in the tropical sun, came anchor in this port soon after 8 o'clock this morning. Callao was in holiday array, and many thousands viewed the imposing scene. Enthusiastic crowds went down the bay on excursion steamers and cheered the men of war. It was stated today that Admiral Evans, who has been suffering almost from the beginning of the voyage with rheumatism, is slightly better, but he does not feel that he should risk the danger of coming ashore. Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas, commander of the second squadron, will represent him at the official ceremonies attendant upon the visit, but Rear Admiral Evans is still the commander of the fleet.

President Pardo will give a public reception to the officers to-morrow afternoon and Washington's birthday will be made a great occasion.

Father of His Country.

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

February 22, 1908, is the 176 anniversary of the birth of George Washington, America's greatest national hero and statesman.

U. S. SENATOR
A. C. LATIMER

LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE GROWING

Succumbs to an Attack of Appendicitis at The Capital.

Rapid Increase in the Membership in City and County.

S. CAROLINA MEMBER.

ITS PURPOSES SHOWN.

Was Comparatively a Young Man, and a useful Public Servant.

The Cureton Senate Bill Against Night Riders Endorsed.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Senator Asbury C. Latimer, of South Carolina, died at Providence Hospital at 9:15 o'clock yesterday of peritonitis. He had been at the hospital since Sunday last when he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The members of the Senator's family were with him when he died, having been informed that there was but little hope that he would survive the night. Col. Rausell, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, at once made arrangements for the removal of the body to the Latimer home at Belton, South Carolina. Mr. Latimer was 57 years of age. He was one of the most earnest and conscientious committee workers in Congress.

The Law and Order League, organized last December, is increasing rapidly in membership and extending into the county. The members have outgrown the hall the League has been using and other provisions will have to be made for future meetings. The constitution and oath appear below:

First—Name.—This organization shall be called the Law and Order League of Hopkinsville and Christian county.

Second—Purpose.—Its purpose shall be to secure and preserve order by the enforcement of laws already in existence; by the formulation and enactment of such laws as may seem necessary from time to time, through the ordinary methods of securing legislation; by the encouraging of such officials as are zealous in the enforcement of laws; by the removal of such officials as are dishonest or inefficient, through the proper methods of such procedure; and by endeavoring to secure the election of proper officials regardless of party affiliation.

Third—Membership.—Any male citizen of Hopkinsville and Christian county shall be eligible to membership, provided that such persons be elected in the way hereinafter provided, and sign the oath of membership.

Fourth—Officers.—The officers of the league shall be, a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be elected annually, and who shall perform the duties usually attaching to such offices.

Fifth—Executive Committee.—The officers, with three others, to be elected annually, shall constitute the executive committee, who shall be empowered to transact any business that may be necessary from time to time, provided that all such business be within the limits for which the league is formed. They shall meet at the call of the chairman. Four

8 Days MORE!

Are the number of days remaining in this month that you can secure TICKETS with all CASH PURCHASES. Your money back if spent with us on the ONE DAY this month.

We Want Your Business.
W. T. COOPER & CO.
Wholesale and Retail Grocers.

OLD SOLDIER DIED SUDDENLY

W. F. Cotton Expired While Waiting For His Buggy.

WAS 63 YEARS OLD.

Fought in The Federal Army During The Civil War.

Apparently without a moment's warning Mr. W. F. Cotton passed over the river last Thursday morning while waiting for his buggy to be brought to the door.

Mr. Cotton lived about two miles west of the city, at the forks of the Princeton and Cadiz roads. He was in good health, so far as known, and during the morning he had been to Major's store, a short distance from his home, and going back home a little before 11 o'clock he expressed his intention of driving to town and asked some one to put the harness on his horse and attach it to the buggy.

There is little more to tell. While seated before the fire waiting for his buggy the life spark went out, no one knowing anything of it until some of the family entered the room and found him dead in his chair. It is believed that heart trouble was the cause of his sudden death.

He was 62 years old and was well-known in the county, particularly in the northern part. He was a member of the Baptist church for many years. When the Civil War broke out he espoused the cause of the Union and joined Company D. of the 17th Kentucky Cavalry. He is survived by his wife and two children.

Passed Century Mark.

Carlisle, Ky., Feb. 18.—Mrs. Susan J. Fryman, who was born in this county August 14, 1806, is dead. Had she lived until next August, she would have been 102 years of age. At the time of her death she was the oldest person in this section of the country.

Bradley Wilson, of Madisonville, and Jno. W. Hallowell, of Princeton, were at the Hotel Latham Thursday night.

BANK OF HOPKINSVILLE

CAPITAL $100,000.00.
SURPLUS 35,000.00.

With the largest combined capital and surplus of any bank in Christian county, supplied with modern burglar proof safe and vault, we are prepared to offer our depositors every protection for their money.

3 per cent Interest on Time Certificates of Deposit.
HENRY C. GANT, President. J. E. MCPHERSON, Cashier.
H. L. MCPHERSON, Assistant Cashier.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

HOPKINSVILLE - KENTUCKY.
UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.

Only National Bank in This Community.

Capital $75,000.00
Surplus 25,000.00
Stockholders' Liability 75,000.00

HAS A REGULAR SAVINGS DEPARTMENT
Three Per Cent Interest Paid on Savings and Time Deposits

E. B. LONG, President. W. T. TANDY, Cashier.

CITY BANK

Capital, $60,000.00
Surplus, $70,000.00

This Bank ranks among the first in the state of Kentucky in proportion of surplus to capital.

In Surplus there is Strength.

We invite your account as a safe depository for your funds. Deposit your valuable papers in our vault—safe from fire and burglars.

3 PER CENT. INTEREST ON TIME DEPOSITS

Save Your Money

Be Happy. Be Wise

Moneysaved is money made. We pay 3 per cent. on Time Certificates of Deposit for six or twelve months. We want your business, no matter how small. We extend to every one the same courteous treatment. Now is the time to open an account with the

Planters Bank & Trust Co

Also acts as Administrator, Executor, Trustee, Guardian, and Agent. Will take care of your valuable papers, and lend your money on real estate or personal security.

BUYS AND SELLS REAL ESTATE.

DELAYED INFORMATION

Of a Night Rider Outrage In Todd County Last Week.

NOTES FROM TRENTON.

George Butler, an Old and Prominent Citizen Taken Out and Whipped.

Information from Trenton is to the effect that a band of about thirty night riders visited the home of George Butler, a farmer living about seven miles west of that place last Saturday night, called him out of his house and whipped him with switches. It is said that they were seen going in the direction of Mr. Butler's about 11 o'clock at night, but they evidently went further down the road, beyond the Butler plantation, as they did not return until about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, when they were seen in the same neighborhood. It is not definitely known why the attack was made on Mr. Butler. He is a man probably 60 or 65 years old, a well known farmer, and is a large land owner.

Many shots were fired by the night riders, but no other damage is reported.

Mr. Butler makes the 21st man whipped by night riders in Todd, Christian, Lyon, Crittenden and Hopkins counties in the last few months.

Ready To Leave.

James W. Parrish, the largest tobacco grower in Central Kentucky, and one of the wealthiest citizens of Woodford county, who was sued by the Burley Society for damages for sale of an alleged pooled crop, has advertised his 900-acre farm and his handsome residence for sale. The house cost over $30,000 and has never been occupied.

Kentucky Soldier.

Maj. Gen. John F. Weston, who was born in Louisville, will to-day assume command of the army in the Philippines.

DEATH SENTENCE FOR STOESSSEL

Verdict of Military Court of the Czar of Russia

HAS BEEN DISMISSED

Mercy Asked Because of Heroic Courage Shown.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 20.—Lieut. Gen. Stoessel was condemned to death this evening by a military court for the surrender of Port Arthur to the Japanese.

Gen. Fock, commanded the Fourth East Siberian division of Port Arthur was ordered reprimanded for a disciplinary offense, which was not connected with the surrender, and Gen. Smirnov, acting commander of the fortress, and Maj. Gen. Reiss, Chief of Staff to Gen. Stoessel, were acquitted of the charges against them for lack of proof. The court recommended that the death sentence upon Lieut. Gen. Stoessel be commuted to ten years' imprisonment in a fortress and that he be excluded from the service.

Gen. Voder, president of the court, read the sentences amid a tense silence.

By a great effort of self-control Gen. Stoessel maintained a rigid, soldier-like impassivity. Gen. Smirnov also was seemingly unmoved, but there was tears in the eyes of Gen. Reiss.

The sentence of death was pronounced upon Gen. Stoessel "for surrendering the fortress before all the means of defense had been exhausted; for failing to enforce his authority and for military misdeemeanors."

Hear The Truth

There is nothing about a set of Harness that requires such careful attention in both leather and workmanship, as Traces and Collars.

There's where the strain lies.
There's Where We Excel,

Though we are just as watchful as to every other detail of a complete set of harness, be it for heavy or light work.

We Make a Specialty of Heavy Team Harness
made to order. Repair work is another long suit of ours. Give us a trial.

Let us Show You Through, it is Our Pleasure, Whether You Buy or Not.

Planters' Hardware Co.,
Incorporated
South Main St.
Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

The facilities of Our Mill is such that we can get out anything in the line of Dressed Material on very short notice. : : :

We are confident we have in our employ the most skilled workmen in the city and guarantee the quality of our mill work to be first class in every particular. : : : : :

HOPKINSVILLE LUMBER COMPANY,
INCORPORATED.

TO PROTECT WALL WILY NATIVE KING

HERE IS SOMETHING DAINTIER THAN JAPANESE MATTING.

Directions for Making Splash-Back in Floral Muslin or Cretonne—Pretty Frill with Which to Finish Drapery.

The splash backs in Japanese matting which are so often used to protect a well-papered wall behind a washstand are never very decorative in effect, and seem always as though their proper place would be rather the floor than the wall of a room. There are many pretty possibilities, however, about a dainty wall drapery of the kind we illustrate in the accompanying sketch. It could be very easily made at home, and fixed securely to the wall, without any assistance from a professional carpenter.

It might be carried out in any kind of floral muslin or cretonne, or even silk, draped in the manner shown in the sketch, and arranged so that it will hang from a long, narrow piece of wood, which must also be covered with the same material. A blind-lath would answer the purpose admirably. Into the back of this piece of wood two picture-frame rings might be screwed, which could afterward hang from two nails in the wall; or hooks might be fastened into the wall, on which the wooden lath might rest.

A pretty frill of the flowered muslin, or other material, finishes the drapery along the top, while lower down the muslin festoons are caught up with tassels.

CULTIVATE HAPPINESS.

Every girl can do one thing well if she will only take the trouble to find what that thing is.

There are great talents in reach, if one will only look, and these talents may be a comfort in dark hours that will make life better and happier, both for ourselves and those about us.

It is the girl who does things that is attractive.

This does not mean painting great pictures or singing in grand opera, or writing the popular book, but it does mean cultivating the faculty of saying bright things, playing light, catchy airs, acquiring the art of being sympathetic.

The girl who puts her own griefs as much as possible aside—who takes a wholesome interest in life, who cultivates looking for the best in people with whom she comes in contact—is happier herself and makes those about her happy.

Use for Silk or Crepe Scarf.

If you happen to have a beautiful silk or crepe scarf fringed and embroidered at the ends and are wondering what possible use can be made of it, use it as one Paris maker does in his latest creation. The center is caught to the waistline in the front with a square rhinestone buckle. Then it is brought up over the shoulders to form a Japanese drapery and down again in the back, where there is another buckle larger than that in the front, the ends of the scarf hanging almost to the hem of the dress, which in the original model is pale blue satin, and the scarf blue crepe with silver embroideries. Various other ways of using these scarfs equally as good as this may suggest themselves to the ingenious home sewer or dress-maker, once it is known that these accessories may be used for anything, but their original purpose, that of draping the shoulder of the owner as a separate wrap.

New Silk Scarfs.

The new crepe de chine and satin liberty scarfs are now stone shape. Some show exquisite hand-embroidered designs; pale gray crepe de chine stole scarfs, for instance, are heavily embroidered in wistaria, and others of apricot with a conventional embroidered design in self-colors.

Then there is the stole, altogether new and novel, which has two of the dearest little pockets—one at each end.

Narrow silk fringe is often used as a finish for these stole scarfs. Sometimes it is in the self-colors, then again it is silver or gilt.

Good for the Complexion.

Parsley water is said to be useful for clearing the complexion. Take one-half pint of rain water and soak a large bunch of parsley in it all night; in the morning wipe the face with a clean, soft cloth, then sponge with the parsley water; let the face dry without wiping. This should be done three times a day for a fortnight, when great improvement will be seen in the complexion.

HAS PROVED MATCH FOR AVARICIOUS WHITE MAN.

Indian Monarch of the Mosquito Coast of Nicaragua Both Far-Seeing and Wise—Refuses to Grant Concessions.

Dr. L. E. Flanagan, a former citizen of Charlottesville, Va., but who has for the last five years been living at Cape Grace, an important town on the east coast of Nicaragua, is at the Belvedere, says the Baltimore American. The doctor is a friend of Gen. Zelaya, president of the republic of Nicaragua, and has been honored by him with several important offices.

"There is probably no richer country in the world than Nicaragua," said Dr. Flanagan. "It is, however, almost a virgin state, as there has been scarcely any development of its great resources. President Zelaya, the able and energetic chief executive, is giving the country a most excellent administration and enjoys the absolute confidence of the people. The natives of the Mosquito coast, as my section is called, are known as Mosco, or Sambo Indians, and are a queer mixture of Indian, negro and Caucasian elements, with the native Indian type predominating, though most of them show their strain of African blood by a kinkiness of the hair, while others are fair-haired and light of skin, as a reminder of Scotch buccaneer progenitors. Not one in fifty of these Sambos ever slept in a bed and not more than one in five ever handles a piece of money. The older members of the family sleep in hammocks woven from the fibers of the henequen or the banana stalk, while the juveniles curl up on the floor. They are about as near to nature as any people under the sun, for nature supplies them with everything necessary to sustain life.

"These Sambos are nominally under the Nicaraguan government. It is true, but they pay direct allegiance to a king, a monarch of their own tribe. His authority extends over many villages and settlements, embracing a coast line of 150 miles, and he is by no means a figurehead, for in periodical revolutions he often holds the balance of power and dictates terms to the contending leaders. The Mosquito coast is the most backward, commercially and industrially, of all the regions bordering on the Caribbean, and for this the Sambo king is directly responsible. He is shrewd enough to know that wherever the white man sets a footing the native soon vanishes, and therefore has refused the granting of concessions for the exploitation of the valuable forests of his kingdom, nor will he allow his subjects to sell their lands. This wily Indian ruler, who can't write his name, has managed to hold his territory in its prime state against the avaricious schemes of the white man. His people obey him unquestionably and the general government is content to let him alone."

When You Don't See It.

Here is a story of the pupil who had never been able to discern the difference between "I seen" and "I saw." Her instructor, after laboring long and patiently to instill a ray of light into her mind on the subject, finally succeeded in getting some good examples from the child which would seem to prove that the difference was at last recognized and appreciated. The teacher paused for a moment and demanded of the child a correct explanation of the difference as she saw it. The girl answered beamingly. She was sure of herself, but it took some thinking to express just what she wanted to say. However, after much inward tumult and obvious effort, the following statement was heard:

"When you see a thing it's 'see,' and when you don't see it it's 'saw.'"
—San Francisco Call.

Insect Hypnotism.

"Did you ever know," said the hypnotist, as he played with a curious, glittering hypnotizing machine of crystal and silver, "did you ever know that hypnotism is, practiced among insects?"

"No."
"Well, it is a fact. A queen bee can hypnotize her whole hive whenever she wants to. She makes a curious humming sound, and within a moment or two every bee in the colony falls into a hypnotic trance.

The death-head hawk-moth is also a hypnotist of great power. This creature, indeed, makes its living out of hypnotism. Entering a hive, it makes a sound not unlike the queen bee's note, and the bees immediately sinking into slumber, the moth proceeds to plunder at its leisure."

Getting Back.

"No, Mr. Winterbottom," said Maude Daryl, coldly. "I can never bring my self to marry a man who carries a horseshoe for luck."

"And yet," George Winterbottom muttered, "who can doubt the iron's efficacy after this?"
Chuckling convulsively, the young man passed out into the cold, sad autumn night.

Fluency.

"I am looking forward to the time when the waters will flow through our mighty inland channels and carry our commerce—"

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "you've got the right idea. The water will flow some day, but a lot of lap-goggles will have to flow first."—Washington Star.

Dressed Chickens Wanted.

Highest Market Price Paid.

Both Phones. B. B. RICE.

Popular Purveyors of Pure Food Products.

Meacham Construction Co.
Incorporated.

General Contractors and Civil Engineers.

Second-hand iron fences, stone curbing and brick for sale. Concrete foundations, floors and pavements. All classes of Engineering work including City and Farm Surveying.

314 South Main St.: Hopkinsville, Ky.

R. E. COOPER, President. G. H. CHAMPLIN, Sec'y & Treas.
RODMAN Y. MEACHAM, V. P. & Gen. Mgr.
GUS MOORE, JR., Local Engineer.

Dill Pickle

AT

J. Miller Clark's

Cockerels

A FINE LOT OF

BARRED

PLYMOUTH ROCK

COCKERELS.

Four to six months old, pure stock bred on double mating system. Some exhibition birds. Prices $2 to $5 and some small ones at $1, just as good stock as the larger ones.

Ralph Meacham,
PHONES 94 and 1222.
HOPKINSVILLE - - - KY.

Koke! Coak! Coke!

Genuine Gas House Coke. Made in Hopkinsville.

The Real Thing.

CLEANEST! CHEAPEST! HOTTEST!

TRY US.

Have you an open grate? Try it there.
Have you a large stove? It will serve you well in that.

Hot air furnaces, Hot water heating plants are utilized to show the advantage of coke as a fuel.

Lights Easily. Burns to Ashes. No Clinkers.

Try It! TRY IT! Try It.

The City Light Company,

INCORPORATED.

The BURPEE IDEA

the BEST SEEDS that Can be Grown!

"To try all things, hold fast to those that are good,—and then make them better." If you would have pleasure or profit from your garden you should plant

W. ATLEE BURPEE & CO., Seed Growers, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Husband Wants the Credit.

"When a man hears his wife say something particularly brilliant he is quite certain that some time or other he said it first."

Spines.

"The spine, according to Dr. Alfred Wensel, controls three billion nerves. And yet we all know spines without any nerve in them at all."

Professional Cards :

FRANK BOYD

BARBER,

7th Street, Hopkinsville, Ky.
 Special Attention given to Patrons, Clean Linen, Satisfactory Service. Call and be convinced.
 Bath Rooms in Connection.
 Rafters 25 cents.

S. Y. TRIMBLE DOUGLAS BELL

TRIMBLE & BELL

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW

HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKY

Over Planters' Bank and Trust Company

Dr. H. C. Beazle

Specialist.

Eve, Ear, Nose and Throat.

OFFICE HOURS: 9-12 a. m.

Main St., Over Kroes' Store.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

C. H. TANDY

DENTIST.

Office over First National Bank

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

WALTER KNIGHT,

Attorney-at-Law

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY

Main St.

E. M. Crutched

DENTIST.

Cumb. Phone 402. Office 4 1/2 Main St.

L&N

TIME TABLE.

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

No. 52—St. Louis Express, 10:15 a. m.

No. 54—St. L. Fast Mail, 10:05 p. m.

No. 92—C. & N. O. Lm., 6:09 a. m.

No. 56—Hopkinsville Ac., 8:55 p. m.

No. 94—Dixie Flyer, 9:43 p. m.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

No. 51—St. L. Express 5:19 p. m.

No. 53—St. L. Fast Mail 5:37 a. m.

No. 93—C. & N. O. Lm. 11:59 p. m.

No. 55—Hopkinsville Ac. 7:05 a. m.

No. 95—Dixie Flyer, 9:37 a. m.

No. 52 and 54 connect at St. Louis

No. 53 connects at Guthrie for Memphis. Lm.

No. 54 and 56 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 55 and 57 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 56 and 58 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 59 and 60 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 61 and 62 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 63 and 64 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 65 and 66 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 67 and 68 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 69 and 70 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 71 and 72 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 73 and 74 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 75 and 76 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 77 and 78 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 79 and 80 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 81 and 82 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 83 and 84 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 85 and 86 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 87 and 88 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 89 and 90 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 91 and 92 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 93 and 94 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 95 and 96 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 97 and 98 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 99 and 100 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 101 and 102 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 103 and 104 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 105 and 106 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 107 and 108 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 109 and 110 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 111 and 112 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 113 and 114 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 115 and 116 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 117 and 118 make direct connection at Galt.

No. 119 and 120 make direct connection at Galt.

PORTRAITS OF

KENTUCKY'S GOV-ERNORS FREE, FREE!

Every Governor's Picture from Isaac Shelby to Augustus E. Willson.

For the first time in the history of the State a complete collection of the portraits of Kentucky's Governors has been secured, and the Louisville Evening Post has made it impossible to place them in the hands of every citizen of this grand old Commonwealth.

The collection was secured after art galleries and private collections all over the United States had been drawn upon. A few of them are very rare, and one of the Governors is the only picture in existence. It was secured at an expense of several hundred dollars.

The portraits of Kentucky Governors are grouped around a new map of Kentucky which has just been especially engraved at a cost of $3,500, and is the latest and best map of Kentucky ever printed. It shows all of the new railroads built in Kentucky in 1907.

In addition to the latest Kentucky map and portraits of Kentucky's Governors, there are nine other maps of great value, among them a map of the United States, showing all of the new possessions, including the Philippines, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and a map of Panama showing the canal zone, also a map of the world.

□ In addition to these maps there are the portraits of all the Presidents of the United States and the Rulers of all Nations, together with cost of arms and flags. The last century reports and a complete census report of all the towns in the State of Kentucky.

Taking this wall chart as a whole it is one of the latest up-to-date attaches for the home that has been produced up to this time.

It contains six pages 28x36 inches.
 This wall chart is given away absolutely free to readers of this paper.
 Ask us about it.

Every home in Kentucky should have one of these Governors' Wall Charts, for there has never before been, published in any form a complete collection of Kentucky Governors' portraits, and every man, woman and child in every home of the State should know who all of their Governors have been and when they served.

It has cost the Evening Post several thousand dollars to secure this collection of Kentucky Governors' portraits, and while the chart alone is worth at least $150, yet we give it away to old subscribers who renew their subscription or to new subscribers. Everybody should have a daily newspaper this year as well as their county paper. This is Presidential year. Call at our office and see this splendid Kentucky Governors' Wall Chart, or send for circular with full description.

"CORRECT ENGLISH-HO TO USE IT."A Monthly Magazine Devoted to the Use of English.

Josephine Turk Baker
 Editor.

PARTIAL CONTENTS

Course in Grammar.

How to Increase One's Vocabulary.

The Art of Conversation.

Shall and Will: Should and Would.

How to Use Them.

Pronunciation (Century Dictionary).

Correct English in the Home.

Correct English in the School.

What to Say and What Not to Say.

Course in Letter Writing and Punctuation.

Twenty Daily Drills.

Business English for the Business Man.Compound Words: How to Write Them.

Studies in English Literature.

AGENTS WANTED—$100 a year.

Send 10 cents for sample copy.

CORRECT ENGLISH.

Evanson, Ill.

MADAME DEAN'S FRILLS.

A Bare, Clean, Bright, and Beautiful Frill.

NEW PATENT FRILL. See our Frill.

Frill. See our Frill. See our Frill.

Frill. See our Frill. See our Frill.

Frill. See our Frill. See our Frill.

UNDER FALSE COLORS

By VIOLET EYING MITCHELL

(Copyright.)

"For do land sakes, Miss Dorothy, what is to matter, my honey dove," cried Aunt Dinah, with chattering teeth, as she looked at the picture in the center of the kitchen, she regarded in deep surprise the clouded face of pretty Dorothy Le Strange.

The young girl seated herself dis-tantly on a chair.
 "Oh, it is poverty, always poverty," wept Miss Le Strange, who, being motherless and still very young, had grown to treat Aunt Dinah with a certain affectionate friendliness born of their mutually fallen fortunes. For, in the good old ante-bellum days, when Dorothy's mother had been the Belle of Charleston and her father reckoned as one of the wealthiest as well as proudest men in the state, Aunt Dinah and her daughter had been as close as the Le Strange kitchen, and her orders had been meekly carried out by half a dozen satellites. But, alas! with the decadence of southern prosperity fell also the fortunes of the rich banker, and when, ten years later, Dorothy's blue-eyed mother, dying in want of the luxuries to which she had been accustomed, faded out of a world which no longer held any charm for her, she had left her baby in the arms of the one faithful servant who, through sorrow and sunshine, had followed in the footsteps of her beloved mistress.

Bound by the tie of strong affection to the family, Aunt Dinah struggled to keep alive in Dorothy the proud spirit of her mother, and with the skill of a veteran officer ruled the kitchen, watched with belligerent eyes Miss Le Strange's northern associates, and could, by a shake of her turbaned head, upset many a plan of her master's making.

"Sho! Poverty mightn't mean. What he do do to yo' now, Miss dear?"
 Dorothy unfolded a letter, balancing herself deftly upon the chair, spread it out upon the lap of her faded green cashmere dress.

"I've got an invitation to the ball at Armitage's," she sighed, between little sobs. "All the Everts girls are going, and Surlie Williams. Even Catherine Bates will be there in a brand new lemon-colored taffeta. Everyone has something to wear but me, and it's the very first big dance to which I have ever been asked—I wish I could dress yes, I do. This being proud and poor is a curse to anyone."

"Huh!" Aunt Dinah's eyes closed sharply, like the snapping of a box lid, as she would shut out from some inner temple all distracting influences.
 "Lemme think; dar's yo' ma's ole blue silk, might be made over."

"Don't talk of that!" exclaimed Miss Le Strange, fiercely. "The dress has been made over five times. Besides, Harry Mortimer spilled half a cup of bouillon over the front breadth.
 I can't use it."

"How much money yo' got in yo' Armitage's," she said at last, naively.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but something like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear tonight. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

of girls, "may I introduce my most intimid friend, Sir Reginald Beauchamp." Dorothy glanced up quickly, to find a pair of handsome gray eyes fixed upon her in such evident admiration that she blushed vividly, wondering if all British boys were as alluring to the eye as this Saxon-haired baronet.
 Half pleased, half angry, she saw that he was bodily placing his initial before five waltzes on the white and gold engagement card for which he had asked, modestly enough.

"I have always heard," she cried, recovering her self-possession, "that Englishmen are very aggressive—and conquer by invasion. Don't you think," saucily, "that three waltzes would be a fair share for one partner?"

"I've would be more according to my views," returned the young man, laughing, too, but offering his arm with Chesterfieldian grace.

"Dorothy, putting a little, took it and losing herself in the maze of whirling figures, forgot everything in the charm of the ever seductive waltz.
 In the first streaks of gray dawn peered in through the window blinds Dorothy, still flushed by happy excitement, bade adieu to Sir Reginald beneath the tall date palms in the conservatory.

"By George! There's a Beauty! Exclaimed Sir Reginald Beauchamp.

"You American girls are a spring of everlasting surprise to me," he was saying, smiling beneath his long, blonde mustache. "You are so odd, so entertaining, so—" He paused for a word.

"Conceited; I fear that is our reputation," Miss Le Strange blushed, and she added: "Of course there are notable exceptions. I am one."

"Are you?" eagerly. "I was going to say that you have such exquisite taste in dress. Now, take my sisters for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

Dorothy lay before her ardent
 gaze, and she studied, with absorbed
 attention, the protruding tip of her
 dainty little black lid slipper.
 "I suppose," she said at last, naively,
 "that you would not care to hazard
 a guess as to the price of this stun-
 ning gown? It is not a bit conventional to tell you, but some-
 thing like $200. I would say the gown
 is for example of my comparison. Belle
 is a handsome girl, a perfect Hebe—
 so is Ellen, rose cheeks, blue eyes and
 the figure of Diana—but either of
 those girls have the individuality to
 conceive such a gown as you wear to-
 night. It is simply ideal, a dream,
 a symphony in dress."

REPORTED CUT

In Wages of L. & N. Shopmen at Expiration of Contracts.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 18.—The sweeping cut in wages predicted to follow in the wake of the reduction of salaries of high paid officials and officers of the Louisville & Nashville railroad first became noticeable yesterday with the semi-official announcement of a slice from the wages of all the shopmen now in the employ of the company. It is understood that the full confirmation will come from B. M. Starks, general manager, today. The reductions follow a graded scale, and vary from 6 per cent. for the poorest paid workmen to 10 per cent. for the best. The men will be paid off today, and at that time receive notice of the cut, it is said.

Information from authoritative sources has it that reduction announcements can be looked for every day for the remainder of the month

The Kentuckian.

Published Every Other Day, TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY MORNINGS, BY
CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

Entered at the Hopkinsville Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

One Year, $2.00
Six Months, $1.00
Three Months, .50
Single Copies, 10c
Shipping Rates on Application.

212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Under a new Postal law that went into effect on Jan. 1, the Kentuckian will have to stop all papers April 1 that is in arrears more than six months at that time and in future cannot get any subscription longer than six months after the time expires. If you own, be sure to get on in cash basis by April 1.

WATCH THE LABEL ON YOUR PAPER.

FEB. 22, 1908.

The opposition to Taft among Kentucky's Republicans does not seem to be formidable.

Senator Charles A. Fulton, of Oregon, Republican, and Elmer L. Fulton, of Oklahoma, Democrat, are brothers.

The Legislative session is dragging along on its last half, with nothing doing in the Senatorial deadlock and but little in any other direction.

The American Tobacco Company is furnishing free tobacco seed to farmers in Southern Indiana who will agree to experiment in the culture of Burley tobacco.

The State Convention of the Republican party has been called to meet in Louisville May 6. Ten of the thirteen members are for Taft, but no attempt was made to endorse the candidacy of the Secretary.

Judge Ball gave the long delayed decision in the Illinois Central Railroad case Thursday. The court held that the Union Pacific holdings of E. H. Harriman can be voted, which knocks out Stuyvesant Fish for President and leaves Harriman in control.

The special election to fill the vacancy in Mason county will be held March 7. It would just be Democratic luck for the Republicans to elect a successor to Representative McKnight, tie the House, unseat Mahin and one or two other Democrats and elect Bradley Senator during the last ten days of the session.

March American Magazine;

The American Magazine is taking up the presidential candidates in a big way.

The other day Secretary Taft told his managers to keep their hands off New York State. Rather than anger his enemies, and split the state, he chose to take his chances and let Governor Hughes go to the convention with New York's 72 votes. Of course Taft is still in the running, and William Allen White will soon present a character sketch of him in the American Magazine. But how about Hughes? Everybody is inquiring. In the March number Ida M. Tarbell writes of Hughes. She makes the big lawyer clear to the reader. One can see how, before he came into the public eye (1905), he was preparing himself. The reader finds, too, that the Governor has a mind that captivates the imagination—a mind that can take up a hard piece of new work and go through it as a steel drill goes through rock.

PALMIST

Francis Dilworth, the New York Society Palmist and Psychic advisor is located at 408 South Main street. She advises upon all affairs in life; love, marriage, divorce, changes, journeys and sickness. If in trouble she will help you, if unhappy she will cheer you. She reunites the separated and causes a happy marriage with the one you love. Only those in trouble need talk. She has no time for amusement seekers. Hours—10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Entrance for colored people on 1st Hrs. from 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. No. 408 S. Main St.

Cottage For Rent.

Five-room cottage, new and in excellent repair, at 25 West 17th street. Possession this week.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

For bargains in real estate call on J. F. ELLIS.

Love and Honey Bees.

I owned a little bee-farm once That made a lot of honey, And helped me some. Because, by gum! Them bees waked into money.

And I was lovin' Mary Brown, That was my nearest neighbor; For Mary's smile And cousin's wiles Took off the curse of labor.

She was the sweetest girl on earth, And every time I'd meet her, I didn't see How it could be, But somehow she was sweeter.

And all the time I kept right at 'em bees to make more honey; For Mary said We shore would wed When I had lots of money.

But after while she moved out west, And I lost farm and fairy, For, if you please, Them goldens bees Went huntin' after Mary.

It broke me up as fine as stuff; But still I say, and mean it, That them bees showed They shorly knowed A sweet thing when they seen it.

—William J. Lampton, in Judge.

AT THE RACES.

Dinks—I just won ten dollars on a horse that didn't have any tail. Winks—I just lost ten dollars on one that didn't have any head.

Marie. There once was a girl named Marie—I am lovely so lonely," said she. When he asked her to wed, She answered and said: "Yes, siree, yes, siree, yes, siree!" —Milwaukee Sentinel.

Right for Once.

Redd—Whenever anything goes wrong he blames it on his wife. Greene—"Is that a fact?" "Yes; why only today they were going out in their automobile and the thing wouldn't budge an inch." "Blamed that on his wife, too, I suppose?" "Sure! She had used up all the gasoline he had in the tank cleaning her gloves!"—Yonkers Statesman.

He Knew.

Bacon—Saw you with a strange lady yesterday. Egbert—Yes. "Who was she?" "My wife." "But I thought it was a strange lady?" "So it was. I'd have you know my wife is a strange lady."—Yonkers Statesman.

Where It Went.

Patience—What was the matter with your cook? Patrice—Said she couldn't get enough to eat at our house. "Well, was there any ground for this complaint?" "Perhaps there was. She'd had enough if she hadn't spoiled so much in the cooking!"—Yonkers Statesman.

Polar Talk.

Yeast—What do they want to find the North pole for? Crimbsome—They don't want to find it. "Well, they're all the time looking for it." "No they're not. They're all the time looking for excuses for not finding it!"—Yonkers Statesman.

Clever Repartee.

Men have reason to dread nimble-tongued women. A certain clever authoress was once asked by a writer of the opposite sex who is not remarkable for civility: "Wouldn't you like to be a man?" To this the lady readily replied: "Wouldn't you?"

The Important Feature.

"There is a great deal of injustice in literature." "Yes," answered Miss Cayenne; "they still insist on putting the name of the author on a book instead of that of the man who makes the handsome cover design."—Washington Star.

In Auto Terms.

"How did you enjoy the opera?" "Very poor. It had plenty of horsepower, but one of the cylinders was missing most of the time."—Life.

The Variety.

First chorus girl—I just got acquainted with a millionaire. Second chorus girl—Pittsburg of plain.—Life.

THE ART OF CONVERSATION.

She—I saw you on Desbrosses street this morning. He—You saw me on Desbrosses street this morning? "Yes; I saw you on Desbrosses street this morning."

"Who? Me?" "Yes, you." "On Desbrosses street?" "Yes, sir, on Desbrosses street." "This morning?" "This very morning."

"Oh, come now! Do you mean to say you saw me on Desbrosses street?" "To be! Yes, I did." "You did?"

"I certainly did see you on Desbrosses street." "Go 'way! You didn't see me on Desbrosses street, did you?"

"To be! Of course, I saw you on Desbrosses street." "You ain't fooling me are you?" "Of course I ain't. I saw you this morning."

"You saw me?" "I saw you." "On Desbrosses street?" "On Desbrosses street." "This morning?" "This very morning!"

"Well, well!" "It's an honest fact. I saw you on Desbrosses street this very morning."

"Well, maybe you did." "Of course I did." "Maybe you did. I was on Desbrosses street this morning."

—Will S. Adkins in Puck. "Substitute Tremont, Chestnut, Calvert, F. Grace, Peachtree, Walnut, Superior, State, Broad, Main, High, or Front to suit your home town."

Keep the Mouth Shut.

He—A person should never boast of his possessions.

She—Why not? "Well, I read only today of a circus elephant at Innsbruck, Germany, which had $70 worth of gold taken out of a filled tooth one night."

"Can't see what that has to do with it?" "Well, if the elephant had kept its mouth shut, it couldn't have lost it!"—Yonkers Statesman.

Wouldn't Go Round.

Mr. Winks—It's a perfect outrage. Mr. Winks. The idea of inviting those gentlemen to dinner, when you knew the house was full of company. Why, it will make thirteen at table!

Mr. Winks—Surely you are not superstitious about that? Having thirteen at table won't worry me in the least.

Mrs. Winks—Well, it will when you see what a small joint the butcher has sent.

A Good One.

Magistrate. You are charged with stealing a dog. What have you to say?

Prisoner. The dog followed me home.

Magistrate. But the policeman says it did so because you had some liver about you.

Prisoner. Well, a man can't walk about without his liver, can he?

REVENGE IS SWEET.

Mistress—You are an impertinent busy, an ugly cat, and a spiteful girl. Pack up your things at once. Maid—I can only respectfully say to madam that I have spitten in her chocolate for the last fortnight.

Why He Skiddooed.

A bullfrog who lived near a pool Saw some kids playing hockey from school. Then he shook his wise head. "As he skiddooed and said, "Boys like frogs' hind legs as a rule!"

Fair Warning.

Myer (at lawn fete)—Excuse me, Geyer, but I have something for your private ear.

Geyer—Forget it, old man. Otherwise we may be arrested.

Myer—Why, what do you mean? Geyer—There's a law against privateering, you know.—Chicago News.

Good Memory and Bad.

Custodian—Clear-smoking is said to have a deleterious effect on the memory. Are you aware of that?

Gluckstein—I can quite believe it. For instance, you have not yet paid for that box of cigars you had last Christmas.

Old-Fashioned.

He—Mrs. Hogger's reception was quite an old-fashioned affair.

She—Indeed. "He—Yes. Why, the refreshments served were actually good to eat."—Chicago News.

A Dakota Ad.

For sale, on easy payments, 100 choice lots. Well-drained, rich soil. Good grounds for divorce.—Judge.

Seeds Seeds

The Best Northern and Home Grown Clover Seed on the market.

Inspect Them and Get Our Prices Before Buying.

We also have a large FRESH Stock of

Red Top,	Blue Grass,
Timothy,	Alfalfa,
Alsike,	Leonard's
Orchard Grass	Garden Seed.

Our Motto:

Reliable Goods at Reliable Prices.

YOURS TO SERVE.

FORBES MFG CO.
INCORPORATED
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

LOST JEWELS.

Bold Theft of Diamonds in Little Rock.

Mrs. Robert T. Cook, of Little Rock, Ark., formerly Miss Lula Watkins, of Trigg county, sister of Lee Watkins, of Gracey, step-daughter of Capt. R. W. Roach, of Montgomery, and niece of W. C. White, of Cadiz, was the victim of a bold daylight robbery in Hot Springs a few days ago.

A negro slipped into her room and made off with her diamonds. The jewels were valued at about $400. They were presents to Mrs. Cook from Mr. Cook, and valued more on this account than on their real market value.—Record.

DAUGHTER'S WEDDING

Drove Muhlenburg Farmer To Suicide, Tuesday.

Central City, Ky., Feb. 21.—Jesse Welborn, a well-known farmer, sixty-five years old, committed suicide at his home, Dunmore, Muhlenburg county, Tuesday morning. After rising he talked to his daughter, Mabel, concerning her approaching marriage, telling her that it was more than he could bear. She told him that she would not marry, but would remain with him all his life. Apparently happy, he repaired to the barn and fed his stock, and shortly afterwards his body was found in the barn. He had shot himself with a shotgun.

JOINER-SPICKARD.

Christian County Farmer Married in Caldwell.

Mr. Maxie Joiner, a well known young Lafayette farmer and son of the Rev. Israel G. Joiner, and Miss Nettie Spickard, daughter of Mr. A. J. Spickard, of Caldwell county, were married at the Princeton hotel Wednesday, at 6 p. m. The Rev. Petty, of the Methodist church at Princeton, performed the ceremony. The young people arrived in Hopkinsville Thursday morning, accompanied by Miss Bessie Corinne Carter, of this city, and went directly to their future home near Lafayette. The groom is a model young man, with a host of friends.

His bride is a young woman possessing numerous accomplishments. She is quite pretty and has been a social favorite in Caldwell society.

Roseyear Resigns.

H. E. Roseyear after nineteen years' service as secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky, resigned at the biennial convention, which is in progress at Winchester. C. H. Dix of Louisville was elected his successor. Richard Ernest, of Covington, was elected president.

John Lander, of Calvert City, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Ethel Gunn is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. L. Gant, in Florida.

30-THOUSAND TELEGRAPHERS

Account of new WANTED eight-hour law. Salaries increased.

DRAGHON'S PRACTICAL BUSINESS College

Evansville, Paducah, and St. Louis. Draghoun's Telegraphy students by special arrangement, use railroad wires. Draghoun's Co. (Chicago office) Evansville, Ind., has a college in Evansville, Ind., capital, $1,000,000. Students annually, 1,000. THE BEST. THREE months' studying. Book-keeping or shorthand by Draghoun's CO. RIGHTED methods equals SIX elsewhere. EVANSVILLE has had some students leaving by MAIL. Write for prices on Home Study. POSITIONS Catalogue FREE.

LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE GROWING

(Continued from First Page.)

members shall constitute a quorum.
Sixth—Meetings.—The league shall meet at the call of the executive committee. Fifteen members shall constitute a quorum.

Seventh—Membership.—The signing of the oath of membership, after the reading of the constitution, shall constitute membership to the league, when attested by a member in good standing.

Eighth—Publicity.—The league may from time to time decide what information shall be given to the public, and such information shall be given in that way, and only in that way in which the league shall see fit to issue it.

Ninth—Advisory Committee.—The executive committee shall have the appointing of an advisory committee of not less than fifteen members, nor more than one hundred members, and such members shall meet at the call of the said committee.

Tenth—Filling Vacancies.—The executive committee, with the consent of the advisory committee, shall be empowered to fill vacancies which may occur in the membership of the executive committee.

Oath of Membership.

As God is My Witness: I solemnly and sincerely promise and swear, without reserve or equivocation, that I accept the purposes of the league, that I pledge my best endeavors to securing these purposes; that I shall hold secret all proceedings of the league; that I shall not divulge the name of any member of the league, so help me God.

The league has endorsed Senator Cureton's bill, which has just been introduced in the General Assembly. The bill provides that where the property of a tobacco grower or other person is destroyed "by Night Riders," or other lawless bands, he shall have a cause of action for the recovery of the value of the property against the persons destroying or damaging his property, and also against the county in which the lawless act occurred. The measure further gives to the injured person the right to elect any county in Kentucky in which to bring the action.

It has also authorized the sending of a memorial to the Legislature, through Senator Rives and Representative Feland, asking that some real steps be taken to break up "night riding" and restore law in Western Kentucky.

The membership of the league is made up of the best types of citizenship in this community and there is every reason to believe that it will be a powerful force for peace and good order and for the election of good men to office and for the exposure of those who fail to perform their official duties.

ESCAPED WITH PICK.

Zack Redd, a Negro, Escapes from Workhouse.

Zack Redd, a negro who escaped from the city workhouse several nights ago, has not been recaptured. He has skipped for parts unknown. Redd was in for 27 days for carrying a concealed deadly weapon. The negro got out by using a pick to work his way through the wall.

For Sale at a Bargain.

Scholarship in one of the best Business Universities of the South. Good for any department. Address this office.

Paducah Watchful.

Rumors of a raid by night riders caused the authorities at Paducah to call out extra guards and to send scouts out on the principal highways leading to the city.

Cockerels.

Plymouth Rock Cockerels for sale at prices ranging from $1.50 to $3.00. Only a few left.

RALPH MEACHAM.
Phones 94 and 1122.

Teacher Wanted.

In school district No. 10, Apply to A. M. Henry, chairman, Hopkinsville, R. F. D. No. 4.

MUST BUILD UP BUSINESS.

Country Merchant Can Use the Local Press to Advantage.

The sentiment exhibited in the numerous articles now printed in country newspapers for the purpose of inducing people to trade at home instead of sending their money to mail order houses is good and noble, but we doubt if it appeals to the multitude who patronize these mail order houses.

The best way in which the merchants in the towns and smaller cities can fight the mail order houses is to advertise. They know most of their patrons personally, can show them the goods before they buy, and have many other advantages over the mail order houses and in almost every instance can sell just as cheap, if not cheaper.

If the home merchant lacks foresight and is too penurious to properly advertise his goods, why should the publisher exert himself to keep the trade at home for him? If solicitations on the part of the publisher fail to educate the merchant to the fact that he must advertise if he wants to keep up with the successful ones, then nothing is left to the merchant but to learn in the school of experience, and if the teachings of that renowned school are of no effect on him, then there is no place for him and eventually his place in the commercial world will be taken up by some more enterprising competitor.—Buckeye Informer.

Catch-Penny Schemes.

Those who make a habit of answering advertisements in the cheap mail order papers are sure to bite at the "bait" held out to them sooner or later. One of the common grafts advertising for men to "distribute circulars" and offering from three dollars to five dollars a day for the services. These concerns generally charge a fee of from two dollars to five dollars for "registering," and in return send a number of printed blanks and names of companies who want advertising matter circulated. After some dollars' worth of postage stamps is wasted in writing to the names supplied, the person anxious for a job concludes that he is out of pocket.

A common form of fraud is the advertising for men to become detectives. These are few of these rank humbugs doing business, and in a way so shrewdly devised that the authorities cannot deny them the use of the mails. In a few cases frauds have been detected and the persons charged have been issued against them, but a change was quickly made to another city, and the same old graft put in operation. In these cases the person charged for commission and badge and instructions. The bit of nickle-plated brass sent out as a badge is familiar in nearly every police court as a source of trouble for green young men who think that its possession gives them official authority.

Business men should be on the lookout for a new game which has been played in a number of parts of the country of late. A stranger enters a store, buys a small bill of goods, not exceeding ten or fifteen dollars, says that he will call for them later, and gives a check for $50 or more on a bank, receiving no change in return. He remains away for a few days, then calls for the goods. He is told that the check is no good. After roundly "cussing" the bank he pays for the goods, takes the check and goes. In a few days more the check comes to the merchant, paid at the bank, because it had the merchant's endorsement on it. This was the end to be obtained. Be on the lookout for this game.

Fake Spices Sold to Public.

It has been found that more than 80 per cent. of the groceries sold by traveling agents who sell direct to consumers are of the adulterated classes. Examinations made of coffee sold by such concerns proved that there was 50 per cent. adulteration. The cheapest kind of Santos is used for a base, and with this ground coconut shells, burnt cork and chertory are combined. Such concoctions are dangerous, and a rank noxious upon the people. The spices that are sold by many of the alleged pure food concerns that have agents working among the people in small towns are dangerous to health. Many classes consist of ground bark, nut shells and other materials and flavored with artificial flavors that are coal tar products. It is unsafe for a housewife to purchase goods that gain their business through canvassers, or who do an exclusive mail order business.

Lava Put to Good Use.

Residents of the district round Vesuvius have put to practical use the lava which has flowed from the volcano in the past and recent eruptions. Naples and its vicinity appear to be a world of lava. The streets are paved with it. There are lava staircases and statues, drinking troughs, bird-baths and even jewelry. The guides make a profit out of it by pressing coins or other objects on partially cooled fragments and selling these to visitors. On the shady side of the mountain, there is enough lava to build a large city. In appearance it resembles a shoreless frozen sea of dull black that shimmers strangely purple in some lights.

Cheyenne (Wyo.) merchants are organizing a fight against mail order houses. It is claimed that fully one-half of the clothing and dress goods purchased by the people of Cheyenne come from outside towns, and the local merchants are deprived of the local business, to say nothing of the hardware, notions, novelties, etc., that are secured through the mail order houses.

ROYAL Baking Powder

The only Baking Powder made with Royal Grape Cream of Tartar—made from grapes—

Insures healthful and delicious food for every home—every day

Safeguards your food against alum and phosphate of lime

BRYAN SAYS

The Trusts, the Tariff and Railroad Question Will Be the Issues.

Columbus, O., Feb. 18.—Wm. J. Bryan in an interview here today said: "I can not say how much President Roosevelt's attitude has to do with the present financial disturbance. If his investigations or recommendations have tended to squeeze the water out of watered stock the blame should not fall on him but the one who watered the stock. 'My criticism would be that he did not commence soon enough to storm the fort.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

"The great questions to share attention in the coming campaign, I believe," said Mr. Bryan, "are the trusts, the tariff and the railroad questions. But one issue runs through all of these, however, and that is 'shall the government be administered in behalf of all the people or for the benefit of a few of the people.'"

Mr. Bryan addressed the Ohio Legislature today on the subject of bank guarantees. This evening he spoke at Memorial Hall at a "dollar dinner," his subject being "The Point of View."

VERDICT DUE TO-DAY

Fate of Port Arthur Defendant Now in Hands of The Court.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 19.—The court which has been trying Lieutenant General Stossel for the surrender of Port Arthur to the Japanese retired for deliberation at noon to-day, ordering General Stossel and the other defendants in the court-martial proceedings, Generals Fock and Reiss, to appear at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, when sentence is expected to be pronounced. Sentries have been stationed at the doors leading to the judges' room, which has been provided with beds; indicating that the judges anticipate a struggle in their efforts to reach a verdict.

Miss Lucy Wallace has gone to Louisville to spend several weeks with friends and relatives.

Ham sacks for sale at this office.

AGREED WITH LATE EMPLOYER.

For a Time, at Least, Boy Would Not Smoke "Twist."

Mr. J. M. Barrie, the popular novelist and playwright, has glorified in hacco more than once, but on a certain occasion he tried to induce a smoker to desist. It happened thus: Mr. Barrie returned to his rooms one day and discovered his page boy putting hard at a dirty clay pipe.

"My boy," said the novelist, "it is very bad for you to smoke that coarse black twist. You will make yourself ill before your time." And so he went on till he had delivered a long and what he believed to be a telling lecture. A day or two later the youth left without giving notice, and shortly afterward Mr. Barrie brought some friends to his flat. Promising them a special treat, he went to a cabinet where he kept a store of very choice cigars. You can imagine his chagrin when he discovered that the cigars had vanished, and in their place was the page boy's clay pipe and the following note: "Dear Sir: I agree with you that it is bad for a boy to smoke twist. I will not smoke any more twist till I have finished your cigars."

MANY USES FOR THE HAIRPIN.

Little Instrument May Be Said to Be Invaluable.

It is an excellent substitute for a paper cutter. It will pierce cigar or clean a pipe. As a buttonhook, either for boots or gloves, it is invaluable. In lieu of its sharper sister, the pin, it serves as a trigger for the known to find it convenient for extracting the wrinkle from its shell. In extremities it has served as a toothpick, horrible as this may seem, while, if a sufficient number are used, it supplies the place of a hatpin.

There is another popular service also that it performs, says the London Chronicle. Recently at a smart hotel in London a young lady took a novel, saying to the man who was carrying it round: "How far have you got with this story?" As she spoke she opened the book with that quick movement which inevitably betrays the book marker, then putting it down with a laugh added: "Oh, I was looking for the hairpin which marked the place you had reached, but, of course, you don't use hairpins."

What Was Lacking.

A man who had served two terms in Congress was making a campaign for a third term. In the course of a speech in the town hall at Bloomington, a village near the further boundary of his district, he said:

"It is true, fellow citizens, that I have not always been able to do as much as I should like to do in the matter of internal improvements in this district, but I have never lost sight of your interests for a single moment. You have no idea of the obstacles that lie in the way of a congressman who tries to secure appropriations for public buildings, the improvement of navigable streams and the like for the benefit of his constituents, but I have labored constantly in your behalf to the very best of my ability."

"We know it!" shouted an old farmer in the audience. "That's why we want an abler man."—Youth's Companion.

What the Heart Does.

This so-called most delicate of organs, the most vital, may be God's principal handwork. There are scientists who say one can make a man, but they cannot cause his heart to beat. The human heart is about 5 by 3 by 2 1/2 inches in size. It weighs from 8 to 12 ounces, and its capacity is from 4 to 5 ounces in its ventricle. It is a hollow muscular organ, through which passes 2 1/2 pounds of blood every minute. Gaze on these figures and wonder! Sixteen tons of blood pass through it every 24 hours! Do some more thinking. It beats about 72 times a minute in a healthy adult man. Now, this still harder—in one year 11,680,000 pounds of blood pass through the heart. Such figures stagger humanity.

When "Drammers" Come Easy.

At the Players' club in New York one evening there was a guest from out of town, a playwright well known for his extraordinary facility in turning out the alleged "drammers" that do the "ten-twenty-thirty" circuits. It is no uncommon thing for this producer to grind out five or six of his plays annually.

Some one innocently asked the playwright if it was rather difficult to find new ideas for his plays.

"Really, I do not know," was the frank answer of the man who has made thousands of dollars from his "drammers." "I have never tried it!"—Sunday Magazine.

Certainly.

Visitor—How do you do, Tommy? I've come to stay at your house a week, and I'm sure you can't even guess who I am."

Tommy—I'll bet you're one thing."

Visitor—What?

Tommy—I'll bet you're no relation of father's—Harper's Weekly.

Consolation.

"Steward, how long will it be before we get into the harbor?" "About an hour and a half, ma'am." "Oh, dear, I shall die before then." "Very likely, ma'am. But you'll be all right again when you've been on shore ten minutes."—Marine Journal.

MEETINGS CALLED OFF.

Trouble Was Expected If Warring Factions Met.

New Castle, Ky., Feb. 21.—The meeting of the "Antis" and the Equity Society, scheduled for Saturday, have been called off, as it was feared another public discussion of the tobacco question would result in trouble.

Citizens, in the interest of law and order, opened negotiations with both factions to secure rescinding of the calls.

The Board of Control of the Equity Society met this morning and agreed to call off its meeting. Later Judge Hill, who issued the call for the "Antis," announced that there would be no meeting of his side. Judge Hill issued a card concerning the flaming posters issued under the name of the Equity Society. He said he did not believe the members were responsible for the posters.

Married in Clarksville.

George Dean, of this city, and Miss Theresa Sullivan, of Clarksville, were married at the Catholic parsonage in Clarksville, Tuesday evening. Father Nolan performed the ceremony. Mr. Dean and his bride arrived here Tuesday night, where they will reside.

Gasoline Engines.

We have three second hand Gasoline Engines for sale. Call and see.

M. H. McGrew,
Eight and Clay Streets.
BOTH PHONES.

WANTED Produce of All Kinds.

Pay Highest Cash Prices For

BUTTER, EGGS, POULTRY, WOOL,
HIDES and FURS.

BUY IN ALL QUANTITIES.

See, Phone or Write Us For Prices.

The Haydon Produce Co.
HERBERT L. HAYDON, Mgr.
Cora. Phone 25-3; Home 1322.
East 9th St. Near L. & N. Depot.

Buy Your Fine Whiskies, Brandies, Wines, Cigars Etc. Etc.
FROM MICHEL & DEAN
REVINTON STREET
THEY HANDLE THE BEST.
Jug Trade
A Specialty
BOTH PHONES

CHOICE BARGAINS.

*Some Fine Offers
In Farm Lands
And Town Lots.*

336 acres 12 miles south of Hopkinsville, only three miles from Howell, well improved; 130 acres in clover, 26 acres in timothy, 35 acres fine timber, $35 00 an acre.

303 acres, near Lafayette, large house and all other necessary improvements, 60 acres good red and post oak timber, at the low price of $4,500.

200 acres, near Pembroke, rich land and well improved. Runs right up to within 1/4 mile of the best little town on earth.

211 acres, 5 miles South of town, improvements good, and everything in good shape. An opportunity you cannot afford to miss. Price only $30.

418 acres near Roaring Spring. Can be divided into two farms. Good improvements, fine land and will besold cheap

Also some very desirable houses and lots in the city for sale.

Call and see us if you are interested in a good home either in the city or country.

If you want to buy anything we have got it and if you have anything to sell we can help you.

Planters Bank & Trust Co.

FOR TWO WEEKS

Women's Club Federation In Publicity Campaign.

(COMMUNICATED)

Three years ago, when the Education Committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs started on its very vigorous investigation of educational conditions in Kentucky, it opened up to the Federation two opposing courses. One was to smooth and pat the already over-developed self-complacency of Kentuckians. The other was to take the conditions as they were found and use them as a goad to whip a sleeping people into action. The Federation Board never hesitated. It chose the latter course, and has diligently pursued it ever since, and in a very definite way. It has been pursued at the cost of occasionally being criticised for disloyalty to their State and of being accused a few times by a few of the undiscerning of using facts and figures that were inaccurate, if not wholly unreliable. These undiscerning few no doubt can be convinced in time, and meanwhile the good work goes on, aided and abetted by all real lovers of Kentucky whose sense of loyalty and pride in their State and ambition for it is not hampered by blindness to its faults.

Definite Plan Decided On.

Last August, at a meeting of the education committee of the federation, it was decided to adopt for the year two lines of educational campaign work. One was the organizing of county school improvement leagues throughout the State; the other was systematic, regular and continuous press work. By concentrating their efforts along these two lines a great deal has been accomplished. Improvement leagues have been formed in many counties, and 175 newspapers in the small towns have been supplied with weekly articles bearing on all sides of our educational problems. This press work has been done gratuitously by the club women and others interested, but the typewriting and stamps alone has cost the federation over $25 a month.

In pursuing these lines of work the federation has not only become more and more impressed with their possibilities, but with the possibilities of other lines of procedure. New fields have opened up new opportunities have presented themselves, and new ways and means have been devised for accomplishing some of the things that will help to make Kentucky assume a place of pre-eminence.

Two Weeks of Publicity.

Right at present the federation is busy with plans for elaborating and enlarging their educational campaign work. Part of the preliminaries, leading up to the launching of their plans, includes a two weeks' press campaign, and so, beginning with this issue, the Courier-Journal, as well as all the other Louisville papers and most of the leading papers in the State, will publish every day for two weeks short articles from special press committees bearing up on the various phases of our educational conditions and problems.

It is to be desired that no man, woman or child in the State shall have an excuse for not knowing Kentucky's educational conditions, and just how they compare with the conditions of other States, what lines of action must be pursued in order to better our conditions, what better conditions would mean to us socially, industrially and commercially, what duties we have as citizens, what plans we have for better things. These articles we hope will interest you. We want you to look them up and read them and pass them on to some one else, and, above everything else, to keep in mind that the subject matter of the thing you are reading has the backing of authority, and that excitement or imagination plays no part in it.

Myerious Woman.

Owensboro, Ky., Feb. 19.—Poetic Jean Audley, is again back in Daviess county, with her pony and seven dogs. She was recently driven out of Spencer county, Indiana, at Rockport, and has since been on near the farm of a Mr. Poole at Macco.

Mr. Poole has been hospitable towards her and she has visited his home and delighted the family with her artistic piano-playing. She has been invited to remain in the house at night, but declined even during the most inclement weather, preferring an out-of-doors bed. Mr. Poole has not complained of what he gives

To Our Friends And Patrons:

We wish to say to you that we shall be in the field with more enthusiasm than ever, seeking to claim a good portion of your business. We will have at all times a full line of

Sheet Metal Building Materials, Cistern Pumps, Rain Water Filters, Roof Paints, etc.

At such low prices you cannot afford to place your orders elsewhere. We wish to thank you for your contributions to our success for the past year, and any good things that you may say of us or any business that you may send us will be greatly appreciated.

E. Y. JOHNSON, 9th ST. TINNER,

Claude P. Johnson Manager.

PRICES MODERATE, YOUR BUSINESS SOLICITED.

Cum. Phone 275

Near I. C. Depot.

In Presidential Year 1908—

Those Who Want the TRUTH should Read
"An Independent Newspaper"

THE EVENING POST DURING THE YEAR 1908.

COSTS LESS THAN ONE CENT A DAY

FREE—A New Kentucky Governor's Wall Atlas.

From Isaac Shelby to Augustus E. Wilson.

All of Kentucky's Governors. The only complete collection now in existence. Every true Kentuckian should have a copy in his home or office.

JUST OFF THE PRESS is the new Kentucky map.

Engraved especially for the Evening Post at a cost of $15,000.

In addition to this up-to-the-minute Kentucky map and pictures of all Kentucky's Governors, the complete census of all Kentucky towns is given, with pictures of all the Presidents of the United States, Rulers and Kings of all nations, "champion routes," statistical data. In addition to the above there are nine maps of the United States, Panama Canal, Eastern and Western Hemispheres, reports of the last three national census and much other historical information.

This large and valuable Atlas is FREE to ALL EVENING POST SUBSCRIBERS. If not now a subscriber, send $1.00 for a full year's subscription by mail, or $2.00 for six months subscription. Understand that these rates are by mail only and that subscription price by carrier or agent is 10 cents per week.

The Evening Post is first in everything; has the most State news and best market reports.

A daily newspaper for the home.

The Evening Post, LOUISVILLE, KY.

Special Price On Atlas and Evening Post With This Paper.

A Very Profitable

Investment

is to equip your home with a modern sanitary bath room. It will add to the money value of your property; but what is of more vital importance the assurance that it is absolutely sanitary and of perfect cleanliness, which only open plumbing and modern fixtures can give. For full particulars see PHONES: Cumberland 850.

Home 1371.

HUGH McSHANE, THE PLUMBER.

Cumberland Phone 950.

312 South Main

Thrice-A-Week World

More Alert, More Thorough More Fearless Than Ever.

READ IN EVERY ENGLISH

SPEAKING COUNTRY.

A President of the United States will be elected this year. Who is he and who is the man whom he will beat? Nobody yet knows, but the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World will tell you every day and every detail of what promises to be a campaign of the most absorbing interest. It may not tell you what you hope, but it will tell you what is. The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established a character for impartiality and fearlessness in the publication of news, and this it will maintain. If you want the news as it really is subscribe to the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and is thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN together for one year for $2.25. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

Leather from Cow and Horse. The hide of a cow produces about 35 pounds of leather, that of a horse about 15 pounds.

to Jean to eat, but he says feeding here dogs and her pony is a tax on any household. He has visited Judge Owen to see what could be done in the way of getting rid of the imposition, but he does not believe the woman is insane. He thinks she is too brilliant and cultivated to be insane.

Judge Owen will probably be prepared to deal with the case, as he was last fall, when it comes before him. She went to Indiana from Owensboro.

CANDIDATES.

Judge Wall or 'Squire Rice
To be Democratic Nominee.

Maysville, Ky., Feb. 19.—It is given out here that either Judge Garrett S. Wall, a Beckham man, or 'Squire William H. Rice will be the Democratic candidate for representative to succeed the late Virgil McKnight and that Elijah C. Kirk will be the Republican candidate. Both the latter are farmers and members of the Equity Society, which will no doubt be the factor in the fight. The temperance question will be passed up for the present. It is not known how Rice or Kirk stand on the Senatorial question, as neither have expressed themselves. Rice was the Democratic candidate for Senator against B. C. Grigsby, who defeated him by a reduced majority.

Account "Mardi Gras" Illinois Central will sell excursion tickets to New Orleans and return at one fare plus 25c. Dates of sale Feb. 25th to March 2nd inclusive. Return limit leaving New Orleans midnight March 10th.

J. B. Mallon, Agt.

Tests of Work.

There are three tests of wise work: That it must be honest, useful and cheerful.—John Ruskin.

WHY IS IT?

That each month in all the best homes in this country, on the library table, and in every club reading room, you find the

METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE

It is because it keeps you in touch with those great public and human movements on which the American family depends.

It is because its stories are the best published anywhere.

It is because its illustrations in color, and black and white, set the standard.

It is because its articles are the most vital and interesting.

It is because there is something in each copy for every member of every American family.

A YEAR'S FEAST

1800 Beautiful Illustrations, 1560 Pages of Reading Matter, 85 Complete Stories, 75 Good Poems.

50 Timely and Important Articles.

1000 Paragraphs presenting the big news of the "World at Large."

120 Humorous Contributions.

Wonderful Color Work, presented in frontispieces, inserts and covers.

All Yours for One Year's Subscription to THE METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE
Price $1.50 per Year or 15 Cents a Copy

The publishers of THE KENTUCKIAN have made a special arrangement with THE METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE by which we are enabled to offer the following extraordinary bargain:
The cost of one year's subscription to THE METROPOLITAN is $1.50. The cost of twelve months' subscription to THE KENTUCKIAN is $2.00. We offer both for $2.75.

Where Health and Pleasure May be Found! Dawson Springs, Kentucky HOTEL - ARCADIA.

The waters are world wide in the celebrity. The Hotel with a capacity to take care of 200 people, is situated on the Kentucky Division of the I. C. R. R. about 200 feet from the rail road station, surrounded by a beautiful maple grove. The old chalybeate well is in the yard, and the celebrated salts well about 100 yards from the Hotel. The wells are owned by the Hotel Arcadia and the guests of the Hotel have free access to them. An Italian Band will be in attendance during the entire season.

RATES.

$2 per Day! $10 per Week!
$35 per Month!

Children 10 years and under $5 per week!
Nurses and Maids $1 per day!

For further particulars apply to N. M. Holman & Co.

HOTEL ARCADIA, Dawson Springs, Ky

IN THE COMING ELECTION YEAR

with its intense interest in the trusts, the tariff, the railroad, politics generally and political personages, the Review of Reviews will be doubly valuable to you.

25 cents a Copy
$3.00
a Year

The Review of Reviews

offers busy people an education in current events that is concise, comprehensive and authoritative at a minimum cost of time, effort and money

ALL THE MAGAZINES IN ONE

With Dr. Albert Shaw's monthly "Progress of the World," with the cartoon history of the month, with the timely contributed articles on just the question you are interested in, with the gist of the really important articles of all the other magazines of the world served up to you, and reviews of new books—one can keep intelligently up with the times at a minimum cost of time, effort and money.

WE WANT REPRESENTATIVES
In every community to take subscriptions and sell our book offers. Liberal commissions and cash prizes. A fine chance to build up a permanent and profitable business in your home town. Write to-day to

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS CO.
13 ASTOR PLACE, NEW YORK
Room 500

TEETH

We Save Aching Teeth.
We Save Broken Down Teeth. We Save Teeth That Others Extract.

To enable every man, woman and child to have their teeth attended to we have decided to work at the following low prices:

Cleaning 50c
A good set of teeth $5
Bridge work $4
Crown work $4
Fillings 50c and up
Painless extracting 25c.

VITALIZED AIR

LOUISVILLE Dental Parlors,

(Drs. Florerstein and Smith)
NEXT TO COURT HOUSE,
HOPKINSVILLE, - KENTUCKY
Both Phones

30 THOUSAND TELEGRAPHERS

Account of new eight-hour law. Salaries increased

DRAUGHON'S PRACTICAL BUSINESS

Evansville, Paduch, and St. Louis Draughon's Telegraphy students, by special arrangement, use railroad wire. Draughon's Co. (Home office: Nashville, Tenn.) has no colleges in existence. Draughon's Co. capital: $1,000,000 annually. $5 page success. STUDENTS men say Draughon's IS THE BEST. THREE months' studying book-keeping or shorthand by Draughon's COPY-RIGHTED methods equals six elsewhere. Draughon also had good students become by MAIL. Write for prices on Home Study. POSITIONS secured on company backs. Catalogue FREE.

Make Good Packing Paper.
Old newspapers make excellent packing paper, in which to put things in storage, as printing ink is distilled by insects.

KEEPING SKIN IN CONDITION.

Simple Precautions That Will Prevent Winter Blemishes.

For the harsh and blustering winds of the winter months one should guard against the skin chapping and becoming marred with the other blemishes which often appear in the winter. If the skin is sluggish and yellow looking a good tonic should be taken to tone up the whole system.

As a further preventive against these evils, care should be taken in the choice of soaps, creams, foods, powders, and washes one uses on the face, using only the best and doing without any rather than use cheap ones. Unfortunately the best will not agree with every one, that is, different skins require different tonics and creams.

The face should be properly washed with a complexion brush, a soapy lather, and is rinsed in several waters, the last being warm and containing a tonic. There are three cosmetics which should be constantly used and which should only be of the best, and they are, a pure, good soap, a simple skin tonic, and a mild and antiseptic cold cream. The cream should be thoroughly massaged into the skin after the face has been washed as directed and afterward bathed in cold water, to which more of the tonic has been added. After such painstaking and careful treatment one can safely brave the winter winds and blasts.

COVERLETS FOR BABY'S CRIB.

Toy Designs Are Feature of the Season's Novelties.

Coverlets that are as entertaining as toys are among the novelties offered for baby's crib or bassinet. These quaint edger or wool comforters may be bought ready to use or they may be made very easily at home. The foundation is edgewise in whatever color matches baby's belongings. Pink, blue, white and pearl gray are substantial colors and form excellent backgrounds for the odd decorations to be put on. These consist of dolls, toys, trees and similar objects stamped on cloth in bright colors, then cut out and sewn flat on the coverlet. The idea has evidently been suggested by the nursery decorations now in vogue.

There is no rule to follow in placing the toy decorations. They are put on wherever they fit, but not too close together, and after being carefully basted in position they are sewn down all around the edge with a fancy embroidery stitch as a finish.

OF GOLDEN-BROWN VELVET.

Handsome blouse of golden-brown velvet braided with soutache and ornamented with large passementerie, buttons and loops of soutache.

It is slashed open on each side of the front over fitted gulf.

The V-shaped neck is finished with an edge of light blue velvet and the chemise is of fine lace and gulfure.

Morning Waist from Shirt Waist.

A morning waist which may be kept much neater than a shirt waist when working in the kitchen, and which is a great deal more comfortable, may easily be remodeled from an old shirt waist. Cut off the neck band and make the neck a little lower. Then stitch a fitted band of the material or a band made of a contrasting color to the neck.

This is an extremely comfortable neck finish when working, as the head is not strained. Cut the sleeves off above the elbow and finish with bands of the same material as was used for the neck. Now fit the waist on and carefully mark with pins the waist line. Then fit it into a belt and hem the bottom of the waist. It may then be worn outside the skirt as a peplum, and it saves the time of adjusting the skirt over the waist and having to fasten it down.

Bright Colors.

While quite a demand for evening wraps of a pale color still exists, bright colors, such as cerise, coral, leaf greens, lilacs and yellows are favored. Bright wraps are seen with bright linings and oriental embroideries. The pale and neutral colored wraps are trimmed, while in many of even the most delicately colored wraps the lining is apt to be in contrasting color, often much darker in tone than the outer material.

Braid Is Military.

Wide military braid of the silkiest description is dividing the honors with soutache just now, and instead of the field of decoration being entirely left to the latter's combination of the two is usually introduced into the work manlike tailormade.

BEVERLY ITEMS.

Newsy Notes Chronicled From South Christian.

Beverly, Ky., Feb. 20.—A Valentine social was given by Miss Olive Cayce, who was assisted in receiving by Miss La Rue Fuqua. It was largely attended. The house was artistically decorated, the color scheme being red and white. The hostesses were also becomingly gowned in these colors. After the valentines were read the young ladies enjoyed the liberties of leap year. The charming gypsy, the center of all attention, predicted an aural tinted future for all.

Rev. Wrenford, of Bowling Green, filled Rev. T. E. Tomlin's regular appointment here Sunday.

Miss Mattie Henry Stegar is the pleasant and attractive guest of Mrs. G. R. Cayce.

We regret to lose Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Pate from our neighborhood, but we wish them success in their new work.

Mr. Henry M. Radford, of Pittsburgh, is at home on a vacation.

Misses La Rue Fuqua and Olive Cayce visited Miss Annie Majors recently.

Mrs. J. D. Jones and daughter, Mary, are visiting her mother.

Miss Louise Stegar has returned home, after spending several days with relatives near Church Hill.

Little Fenton Cayce, who is attending school at Hopkinsville, is ill at his home.

Edgar Wood visited friends near Hopkinsville last week.

One of our popular girls will begin teaching at Herndon in a few days.

Misses Janie Major, Zetta Dawson and Elizabeth Major spent a few days last week with Miss Marion Cayce.

Cumberland City, Tenn., received a visit from one of our prosperous young farmers recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Anna Huggins, of Watkinsonville, Ga., were entertained by the groom's sister, Mrs. E. P. Major.

Mr. E. T. Stegar is at Evansville, Ind.

John Giles, of Bell, is seen in our neighborhood quite often of late. Two young gentlemen, of Masonville, were here Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. Butler, of Oak Grove, visited the neighborhood recently.

Mr. Jno. Hill spent a few days here last week.

School closed here Friday, much to the regret of the pupils. The teacher deserves much credit in the discharge of her duties. She will be greatly missed in the social circle.

Miss Dawson will visit friends near Kennedy before returning to her home at LaFayette.

Mr. Geo. Giles is "strolling on the Pike" now.

A pike is very much needed by us.
STRANGER.

Hives, eczema, itch or salt rheum sets you crazy. Can't bear the touch of your clothing. Doan's Ointment cures the most obstinate cases. Why suffer. All druggists sell it.

Who'll Make the Fire?

The scientific theory that a man should lie a-bed twenty or thirty minutes after waking of a morning seems to call for another one stating that he should go to sleep shortly before retiring.—Nashville American.

Can't look well, eat well or feel well with impure blood feeding your body. Keep the blood pure with Burdock Blood Bitters. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean and you will have long life.

An All-Purpose Vegetable.

The Atlanta Georgian advertises the twelve foot okra which that State is growing in profusion now, and adds "we shall make paper from the stalk, olive oil from the seed and the finest Virginia tobacco from the leaves." Does the rest of it go into soup or lubricating oil?—Nashville American.

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. The pain ceased and the child sank into a restful sleep."—Mrs. Nancy M. Hanson, Hamburg, N. Y.

Who Will be President?

This is presidential year, and every man must read to keep posted on politics. The

Courier-Journal

Henry Watterson, Editor.

Is a Democratic Newspaper, but it prints the news as it develops. One dollar a year is the price of the Weekly

Courier-Journal

But you can get that paper and the

Hopkinsville

Kentuckian,

Both one year for

$2.50,

If you will give or send your order to this paper—NOT to The Courier-Journal.

Daily Courier-Journal

$6.00 a Year

Sunday Courier-Journal

$2.00 a Year.

We can give you a combination cut rate on these if you will write this paper.

Howard Brame

PROPRIETOR

Livery and Feed Stable.

Corner 4th and Virginia Streets, J

Hopkinsville, Ky.

First-class rigs, careful drivers and courteous attention. City hack service, meeting all trains. Funeral and wedding work a specialty. Give me a call.

Phones—Home, 1313.
Cumberland, 32.

The Louisville Times

Is the liveliest afternoon paper published anywhere. It prints the news right up to the minute. Four or more editions every day. The regular price of The Times is $5 a year, but you can get the

Hopkinsville

KENTUCKIAN

And The

LOUISVILLE TIMES

Both One Year For

$6.00.

If you will send your order to this paper—NOT to The Times.

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Mansing, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaints, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave today. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

ED BOYD DEAD.

Suicide of a Young Man Well Known Here.

Ed L. Boyd, formerly of this city, died Wednesday from the shot fired into his brain at Central City several days ago. His wife is in a critical condition. Last Thursday night Mr. Boyd was prostrated by over exertion, following an operation for appendicitis. Her husband, a coal miner, 23 years of age, succeeded after a long struggle with his wife in securing a pistol and inflicting a mortal wound on himself. Several months ago Boyd was injured in an accident in a local mine. He was horribly burned and since he was able to leave his bed has been in a nervous condition. His wife was recently operated on for appendicitis and her condition is thought to have preyed upon his mind in connection with his own injuries until he became unbalanced.

Thursday afternoon he took a pistol from a trunk, saying that he intended to kill himself. His wife immediately left her bed to get the pistol. She threw it into the trunk, turned the lock, and, wrapping the key in a handkerchief, placed the bundle in the bosom of her dress. Boyd struggled with his wife until he overpowered her, and securing the key took out the pistol. One shot fired by him, resulting in a mortal wound in his brain.

Mrs. Boyd had swooned and fallen on the floor when neighbors rushed in.

Mr. Boyd, strange to say, lingered for nearly a week. The body was brought here and interred yesterday in Riverside Cemetery. He was a son of Ben C. Boyd, formerly of this city. He was married a few years ago to Miss Nannie Morris, of this place.

UNDER SECRET ORDERS.

Soldiers are Being Sent to Western Kentucky.

The Middleboro soldiers reported to be headed for Hopkinsville and Cadiz have not yet appeared in this locality. Military movements are intended from now on to be secret and no information will be given out. The newspapers are discouraged from giving any information. A dispatch was sent out from Louisville Thursday that twenty-five Louisville soldiers were ordered to some unknown point in Western Kentucky. More than one hundred soldiers are now supposed to be on duty at different points, operating under secret orders.

Next Monday.

The county committee of the tobacco association meets in the circuit court room Monday. Mr. Joel Fort has promised to be on hand and address the meeting and a large crowd will doubtless be present.

PUBLIC LIBRARY? JUST 47 YEARS! AGO TO-DAY.

Nothing Doing in That Direction, So Far as Heard From.
People Seem Perfectly Indifferent to a Great Need.

One of the saddest wails of humanity is, "It might have been." We might have had a public building long ago, but the people did not hustle to get it.

We might have had the help of Mr. Carnegie in establishing a public library several years ago, when the Rev. F. L. Goff was in a fair way of enlisting the big-hearted millionaire's aid, but our citizens were too slow in putting their shoulders to the wheel.

We might be hearing the whirr of street cars even now, if—yes, if. We might be able to drink from a bubbling street fountain next summer—if again. But, thank the stars, the ladies have a hand in this enterprise, and it is going to be a reality.

We might see that much talked-of at-one-time little park at the crossing of Ninth and Belmont streets, if—another if.

We might, some day, see a large and comfortable L. & N. passenger station, if—if, what?

We might see more shade trees and flowers in our yards in season, had we an association of ladies with the aim of beautifying the city—if.

If, the biggest of the little words in our language, seems to stand in the way of having many things Hopkinsville actually needs. But, when a few determined people band together for a certain purpose, the little word vanishes as quickly as if a stick of dynamite had been exploded under it.

What are our people going to do about the Carnegie Library? Is anybody trying to get the people interested in it, or does everybody know so much already that it is not necessary for them to read any more? It may be so. But there is a chance of somebody doing some day and for the next generation it may be necessary. If that is so, remember that "No man liveth to himself."

STILL AT IT.

Louisville's White Elephant Steaks Not Much in Demand.

Only about $7,000 out of the $20,000 worth of Louisville's white elephant steaks had been sold up to Thursday morning, with only one day to run. The money is needed by the Y. M. C. A. to pay off a debt of $20,000. Hopkinsville's unemployed Y. M. C. A. building still stands a grand, gloomy and peculiar monument to an apparently lost cause. Though Mr. John C. Latham is waiting to furnish the gymnasium as soon as the building is completed, it seems that he will not have to draw his personal check for the purpose in the near future.

Holland's Opera House

Monday Night Feb. 24,

Henry B. Harris Presents

The Lion AND The Mouse.

First time in Hopkinsville of the greatest success of modern times. Original company and production.

A Cast Of Distinguished Players.

PRICES:

First Three Rows in Dress Circle.....$2.00
Front Rows.....$1.50
Last Three Rows.....$1.00
Balcony.....75c
Gallery.....50c

Poem Written For Washington's Birthday Celebration In 1861.

ACTORS ARE ALL GONE.

But Author Is Here and Still Engaged In Literary Work.

We produce an original poem to-day that was written for an observance of Washington's birthday in 1861. At that time the veteran newspaper man, S. C. Mercer, was editor of the "Hopkinsville Mercury" and the "Dollar Weekly Southerner."

The latter was a strictly literary paper, not a line of advertising being allowed a place in its columns. Nothing but original matter was published and the contributors were either Southerners or Southern born. The paper had an extensive circulation, principally in the South, of course. But the civil war broke out and both publications ceased shortly after.

The celebration referred to was a local event. The exercises were held in the Christian church. South Kentucky College was then in charge of Elder Enoch Campbell. It was a school for young ladies. Miss Nannie Long, afterward Mrs. V. W. Crab, and the leading soprano of the city in those days, was entrusted with the musical production of Mr. Mercer's poem. It was sung to the tune of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

Each young lady represented one of the States of the Union, and appropriately robed as they appeared on the platform, they presented an inspiring picture. The author of the poem attended the rehearsals and offered suggestions and witnessed the production of his poem with a great deal of pleasure. He and Mr. John S. Bryan, who read the Declaration of Independence, with frequent comments, are the only participants living to-day. It is said that fifty of Mrs. Crab's relatives are scattered over the country. Col. Geo. Poindester, prominent in local affairs, and a member of the State Legislature, presided on the occasion, which is still remembered by many of our older citizens.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY ODE.

Here, whose ashes sleep
By Vernon's sacred steep,
Sire of the free!
To-day thy name be blessed North, South, East and West,
And swell each nation's breast
With love to thee,
Through tempests drear and dark
The Union's holy ark
Thy hand did guide;
The ark which rode the flood Of Revolution's blood,
For freedom's mighty god
Was on thy side.
Where'er thy eagles flew
The world our glory knew
In war and peace;
Safe 'neath the fig and vine
Our fathers did recline,
And sold and gave and mine
Gave rich increase.
Oh that to-day might yield
Once more the sword and shield
Of Washington!
Then freedom's songs sublime
Should peal in thrilling chime
And 'till remotest time
The States be one.

Mr. Mercer has now in press a book of his poems, entitled "Two Kentuckians, and Other Poems." He has been personally superintending the publication and the printers and binders have been instructed to spare no expense to make the volume the handsomest that skill can produce.

Miss Ray Ill.

News comes that Miss Sue Ray, daughter of Dr. W. W. Ray, is quite ill at her home in Springfield, Ky.

MULES FOR SALE.

We have 50 head of good mules for sale.

Layne & Leavell,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

Basket Ball To-Night.

South Kentucky College and Company D. basket ball team will play at the College gymnasium to-night. Admission 25 cents.

AMUSEMENTS

There is nothing sensational about "The Lion and the Mouse," the enormously successful drama of American life which Henry B. Harris will present here Monday night, Feb. 24, except the tremendous popularity which the play achieved on the night of the opening performance and which has since grown in volume until all America is discussing this latest work of Charles Klein. The story of "The Lion and the Mouse" has to do with the upper class of Americans and the author has treated them in such an original, vigorous and truthful manner, the drama has a compelling interest which is positively fascinating to the playgoer. The principal character is John Burkett Ryder, in whom playgoers will recognize a well-known American, famous as the richest man in America and also very much in the public eye at the present time because of his ability to dodge subpoena, servers. The opposite leading figure is Shirley Ross, daughter of an upright friend whom Ryder and his political friends seek to disgrace because of a ruling that was distasteful to them. The other principal characters include a United States Senator and his daughter; an ex-judge of the Supreme Court; Jefferson Ryder, son of the billionaire; Rev. Pontifex Deetle and his sister Jane, well-meaning folks of highly religious principles and some dozen others whom playgoers will be quick to recognize as types common to every day life.

MORE HAY

Will Be Raised in this County this Year.

Large sales of clover seed are being made by the dealers every day. It has been going on for months. It seems to be the purpose of the farmers to produce more hay this year than ever before. Christian county never has raised the quantity of corn, oats and hay that it should. In fact nearly all the hay used here is brought in from other points. Our soil produces almost anything that can be grown and it is about time that we should raise hay to be sent elsewhere instead of sending our money elsewhere for it. As an evidence that our farmers are waking up to the necessity of producing more of what we need, one farmer bought $344 worth of clover seed the other day. Other large sales have been made by dealers in the past few weeks.

OFF FOR FLORIDA.

Heavy Travel Over Roads by Tourists.

Long trains are passing here every day loaded with people who are on their way to Florida to spend the remainder of the winter. A train of eleven coaches, pulled by two engines, passed here the first of the week. Some of the travelers will locate in Florida until spring, while others will tour the State, and some will go to Cuba before their return North.

There is quite a colony of Hopkinsville people in Florida already, and many others will doubtless go before long. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Brownell, accompanied by Mr. Thomas Bottomley, a brother of Mrs. Brownell, left for Jacksonville last Thursday. Their objective point was Jacksonville, where they will remain for a week or ten days, and then move to another point. Mr. Brownell, who is recovering from a serious illness, is hoped will be made entirely well by his sojourn in the land of flowers.

Call at this office for ham sacks, two sizes.

TEN SUFFERERS WITH Blind or Bleeding Piles.

Can be permanently cured, free of charge. Bad cases of long standing preferred. Just write your name and address, and description of your case and treatment will come to you absolutely prepaid, by mail.

Address,
DR. D. GARFINKLE,

609 1/2 5th Ave. N. Nashville, Tenn.

Good Dressers Are Beginning to Realize —THAT WE ARE THE—

Up-to-Date Tailors.

We make our garments in a first class manner, sell only one pattern of a kind and make it just as you wish, and guarantee to please you. We will be pleased to show YOU our immense line of Woolens, if you will give us an opportunity.

THE WITT COMPANY,

INCORPORATED.
Elks Building. East Ninth St.

PASSED AWAY

Before Mother and Sister Reached His Bedside.

Malcolm McCarroll, son of Mr. Robert McCarroll, of this city, died at his home in Evansville, Sunday night, aged 28 years. Death was due to paralysis of the stomach. He had been sick for some time and his mother visited him during his illness, but his condition seemed improved and she returned home. Sunday afternoon a telephone message here conveyed the intelligence that Mr. McCarroll was worse and his mother and his sister, Mrs. P. T. Roberts of Gracely, left Sunday night for his bedside, but he passed away before their arrival in Evansville.

Mr. McCarroll had been a resident of Evansville for several years and was engaged in business in that city. He is survived by his wife. The interment took place in Evansville Tuesday.

Bethel Notes.

Misses Janie Crafton and Martha Radford visited Miss Ethel Stowe from Friday until Monday.

Misses Gertrude Gary, Laura Walker, Janie Crafton, Nettie Stowe, Bessie Gary and Martha Radford attended a Valentine party at Mr. Caudle's Friday evening.

Misses Marguerite and Elizabeth Bacon visited their aunt, Mrs. P. C. Sallee, at Oak Grove Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Laura Walker is unable to attend school this week on account of an attack of gripe.

The Bethel girls enjoyed very much the lecture given by Mr. Wm. Shaw at the Christian church Tuesday evening.

Miss Kitty Bogard accompanied Miss Emmett Major home Friday afternoon.

Miss Janie Garrott spent several days at her home near Pembroke last week.

Miss Kate Harrison entertained a few friends at forty-two Saturday evening.

Miss Alice Radford accompanied Miss Francis Pendleton home last Friday.

A number of the Bethel girls attended the Valentine entertainment given by the Baraca class of the Baptist church on the 14th.

House For Rent

Five room house on Walnut street immediate possession.
J. F. ELLIS.

The Dutchman and Dog

A Dutchman addressing his dog said: "You was only a dog, but I wish I was you. Ven you go to mit der in, you ashud durn round dere times and lay down. Ven I go to mit der bed in, I haf to lock up der place and vind der clock and put der cat out and undress minself, and my wife vakes up and scolds me; den der baby cries and I haf to vank him up and down den maybe ven I shud go to sleep its time to get up again. Ven you get up, you ashud stretch yourself and scratch a couple of times and you was up. I haf to light der fire, put on der kettle, scrap mit my wife alrety and maybe ged sum breakfast. You play around all day and haf a plenty of trouble. Ven you die you was dead; ven I die I haf to go to Hell yed."

Wanted

To make shirt waists, skirts and children's clothes and also comforts and quilts. MRS. C. E. HORD, 917 East Seventh St.

ARM BROKEN

By a Fall On the Polished Concrete Pavement.

Mr. Samuel G. Buckner fell on the pavement in front of Mr. M. C. Forbes' residence Wednesday evening and fractured one of the bones in his left arm, just above the wrist. Mrs. Jno. Y. Owsley and her little daughter, Susan, were with Mr. Buckner and all fell at once, only Mr. Buckner being injured. He was taken to his residence on Virginia street and his injury was attended to by Dr. H. H. Wallace.

The concrete pavement was covered with ice and some children had made it still smoother by coasting with a sled. Mr. Buckner is local salesman of the Tobacco Association. He expects to be out in a few days, though his arm will have to be carried in a sling.

IN FIGHTING HUMOR.

Growers Will Contest Equity of Equity Suits Filed Against Them.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 20.—A determined fight in the courts is being made by the tobacco growers of this county who have pooled their tobacco with the Equity Society in order to take advantage of the high prices now being paid in the open market here.

Attorneys for R. L. Goodpastor and Llewellyn Sharp, Jr., this morning filed a demurrer in the circuit court answering the petition of the Equity Society filed Saturday against them, alleging that the charges made by the society are not in accordance with the facts and do not constitute a sufficient cause of action. The society charged that Goodpastor and Sharp sold their pooled crop, and asked for an injunction against them and $1,000 damages. The case may be carried to the higher court.

HERE AND THERE.

Miss Joy Carr, after a visit of several weeks here to her mother and other relatives, returned home at Hopkinsville yesterday. She was accompanied home by Miss Nannie Malone.—Cadiz Record.

Drs. Oldham, Osteopaths, 705 S. Clay St., Hopkinsville, Ky.

"The kind your grandfather used" and he was of rare judgment. Profit by his experience and use Old I. W. Harper whiskey. Sold by W. R. Long, Hopkinsville, Ky.

W. M. Cook brother of Circuit Judge Thos. P. Cook of this district, died Feb. 9th at his home in McConnell, Tenn., of pneumonia. He was born in Virginia in 1834.—Cadiz Record.

List your real estate for sale with J. F. ELLIS.

Circuit Court will meet Monday for a term of six weeks.

FOR SALE at a bargain, if sold in next 30 days—house and lot on South Main street. Home phone No. 1502. MRS. J. R. ARMISTEAD.

The banks and public offices will be closed today, in commemoration of Washington's birthday.

I will, for the next 30 days, offer for sale our home on South Virginia street at a bargain. Communicate with me—I mean business. J. B. ALLENSWORTH.

For Sale.

Several fresh Jersey Cows, two of them extra fine ones. Phone 208-4.